FULHAM PALACE RULES & REGULATIONS

Fulham Palace is a Grade I listed building and therefore we have a few requests to ask to help keep the palace protected for future generations to come. If you have any questions please do ask.

- We cannot permit red wine in standing drinks receptions in any of the historic rooms including the café drawing room, Great Hall, Bishop Sherlocks, Terricks rooms.
- We cannot have decorative berries in flowers or cakes throughout the Palace to protect the historic floors.
- We ask that heel covers are worn by guests that are wearing stilettos whilst at the Palace. We can provide the heel covers for you. We also request that you include this on your invites under dress code.
- You are welcome to have confetti for that all important shot, but to preserve the Palace and gardens confetti must be dried petals.
- Due to the sensitive nature of Fulham Palace, we are not permitted sparklers, fireworks or Chinese lanterns at the Palace.
- As much as we love them, no dogs or other animals are allowed at the Palace.
- Candles are permitted in the chaplain's garden marquee and externally, however they are not permitted inside the Palace.
- We ask that no red wine or dark liquids are served in the great hall to protect the floor and artefacts in the space.
- Due to premise licensing, our drinks policy does not permit alcoholic shots, leaving bottles on the dinner table or provide double's.
- The piano in the bishop sherlock's room and large table in the great hall are not permitted to be moved or removed from the room.

WHAT OUR HAPPY COUPLES ARE SAYING...

“Wow guys!!
The whole day was magical!!
Your team was just fantastic,
and everything went so smoothly. You were all so accommodating and helpful!
Everything was perfect and the food was great”

- 2022 Bride and Groom

“Just a quick note to say thank you both - we’ve already had so many positive messages from guests saying how stunning the venue was and how elegant everything looked - the food was absolutely delicious and everything went so smoothly - that was down to you both
and all your hard work.
Ale and I didn’t have to think about anything - we know you had it covered so it meant we could just relax and enjoy the day - we absolutely loved it!!
